"Words, Words, Words" is a collection of more than two hundred short essays (500-750 words). Essays are organized into categories such as Reflections, Writing, Friends, Education, Events, Media, Politics, Economics, Language, History, Garden, Technology, Beginnings, Farewells, and Holidays. The author has been writing about issues, events, and ideas for more than fifty years. He wrote six thousand broadcast commentaries, 366 of which were published in a previous book titled "Scratches on the Wall." In one essay, he writes: "Words form the foundation for all thought, all relationships, all emotions . . . not only the foundation but also the walls, the floor, and the ceiling. Too often, we toss words around carelessly, as if all words carry the same value. But some words are like darts, some are like cannonballs, some are like feathers, and some are like trophies. Choose the trophy words. They build better thoughts, better relationships, and better emotions."
