When the Peace, Love, and Cupcakes club reconvenes at the start of fifth grade, some of the peace is missing. Jealous of her BFFs' amazing summer adventures, Lexi narrates this second installment in the Cupcake Club series. As the club tackles more unique cupcake orders, she learns to be more self-confident and stick up for her ideas in the budding business—and when it's better to compromise. The class rendition of Romeo and Juliet also stirs up Lexi's feelings for Jeremy. But why he won't eat cupcakes is a mystery to be solved. More concluding recipes are the icing on this cupcake. Grades 3-5. --Angela Leeper

"This was a fun book that combined two things that most kids love, cupcakes and friends. The book was light and fun, but also brought in a great story line that any child will enjoy. . . The book had some great messages about friendship that I liked and as a parent that I was happy to share with my own girls!" - Dad of Divas

"As a 5th grader myself, it was a fun read . . . I am looking forward to reading more books in this series, Winner Bakes All sounds fun! In all, this book was baked to perfection!" - The Brain Lair

"Sweet read." - Time for Kids
