BOBBY JINDAL: HIS DESTINY AND OBSESSION By Tom Aswell

Born Piyush Jindal in Baton Rouge and nicknamed “Bobby” at a young age, Bobby Jindal’s ambition has always been apparent. From his precocious entry into the world of government at the age of twenty-four to his election as the first Indian-American governor in the United States, Jindal is consistent in his upward push. But what sparked his passion for politics? What influences his doctrines? How does he compare to other Louisiana governors who entertained presidential aspirations?

Political reporter and author Tom Aswell has been in the front row with every Louisiana governor for more than forty years. This in-depth examination explores every facet of Jindal’s career and policies. It peels back the layers of the policy wonk and political wunderkind who has made it his mission to change the face of American politics.

Editorial Review

From the Back Cover

“Aswell . . . nails the hypocrisy in Jindal’s conservatism that he seems to wear loosely for political advantage.”

—Tom Kelly, publisher, Piney Woods Journal

“Aswell is not only a strong voice of sanity and reason in a state that often lacks both; he exposes hard truths about the corruption and misfeasance that is still rife in Louisiana politics. . . . If you want to know what really happened in Louisiana during the Jindal administration, Bobby Jindal: His Destiny and Obsession is the place to start.”

—Bob Mann, Manship Chair in Journalism, Manship School of Mass Communication, LSU

—William B. Brown, former executive editor, Columbus (GA) Ledger-Enquirer and Montgomery (AL) Advertiser

Author Tom Aswell incisively delves into Jindal’s personal and political life to paint a portrait of a man once seen as the rising star of the Republican Party. Aswell brings more than forty years of journalistic experience covering every Louisiana governor since the 1960s. He writes the political blog LouisianaVoice, which was named by the Washington Post as one of the top 100 political blogs. Aswell lives near Baton Rouge in Denham Springs, Louisiana.
