Enterprise Architecture - the Eight Fundamental Factors: A practical guide to the factors that are common to all EA approaches and frameworks. By Elaine Evernden, Roger Evernden

"Enterprise Architecture - the Eight Fundamental Factors" is an invaluable guide providing practical advice, examples and case studies that show how successful enterprise architects make a real difference.

The fundamental factors described here are true for all enterprise architecture (EA) approaches. You will find them in The Open Group Architecture Framework (TOGAF), the Zachman Framework, and in every other EA methodology or framework.

The book provides a combined, integrated EA approach. It shows exactly how these factors are used in practice, and it demonstrates this with details drawn from a wide-range of typical EA initiatives.

The first edition was published in 2003 under the title "Information First".

Editorial Review

About the Author

Roger Evernden has been an Enterprise Architect since 1984, specializing in the highly practical use of EA to manage organizational transformation. He acts as consultant, advisor, mentor and coach on enterprise architecture initiatives, leads training workshops, and writes regularly about strategy and architecture. Roger provides an innovative combination of training and tools to help architects and their team throughout an EA program and at all capability levels. His hands-on training workshops provide a thorough grounding of all the key techniques, with practical examples, exercises and demonstrations. As architect of the Information FrameWork (IFW), Roger pioneered many contemporary techniques, including the use of industry reference models, business capability analysis, and component-based building blocks. His work has been the basis for more than 400 business and IT architecture initiatives worldwide. He has written articles appearing in major publications and books, including the seminal article on Information FrameWork published in IBM's Systems Journal. He is also author of "101 Lessons From Enterprise Architecture".
