Falling to Pieces (Pieces #1) By Jamie Canosa

Suffering the bitter tongues of her alcoholic mother and cruel boyfriend, Jade struggles just to look at herself in the mirror. She hates her life, her insecurities, her ineptitudes, but most of all . . . Jade hates herself. She wants nothing more than to disappear, and everyone seems happy to let her. Until Kiernan Parks moves back into town.

Jade's been crushing on him ever since kindergarten, when his family moved away. But now he's back, and looking better than ever.

Hiding is a way of life for Jade, but Kiernan insists on uncovering the real girl he's sees trapped inside her. On drawing her out of her shell, and showing her that she is someone worthy of love.

Together, they fight back the darkness she's living in. But when they finally step into the light, will the secret Kiernan's been trying to keep buried destroy Jade, once and for all?

For some people, happy endings are a fairytale.
