Judith: Captive to Conqueror By Gabrielle Gniewek, Sean Lam

The Jews have returned to Israel after the Babylonian captivity, but now a new threat looms on the horizon. Holofernes, the wicked and conniving general of the Assyrian army, is sent to conquer all the world's temples, and now heads toward the Promised Land. But in Bethulia, the one city that stands between the Assyrians and Jerusalem, is Judith, the only woman with enough faith and courage to defend the Temple with her life. With her people dying of thirst, and the Assyrians stationed outside Bethulia's gates, Judith leaves the safety of the city and infiltrates the enemy camp to find and kill the sinister Holofernes. But the scheming lieutenant has his own plans for dealing with her and the Israelites - even if it means disobeying the Assyrian king. Only five days remain before Bethulia surrenders and Israel falls - within that time Judith must find the strength to overcome her past if she is to ever outwit Holofernes. A battle of wills is about to take place that will shape Israel's future forever. Rated tween. Be sure to read Manga Hero's other graphic novels including Habemus Papam! Pope Benedict XVI by Regina Doman and Sean Lam, Paul: Tarsus to Redemption by Matthew Salisbury, Gabrielle Gniewek, and Sean Lam, and edited by Regina Doman, and Many Are Called, also by Gabrielle Gniewek and Sean Lam.

Editorial Review

About the Author

GABRIELLE GNIEWEK (AUTHOR) is originally from upstate New York, who first experienced the world of anime through Pokemon in 1999, and was soon hooked after watching Princess Mononoke. Ever since then, she has developed a love for drawing, reading manga, and watching anime that helped shape her into the avid enthusiast that she is today. In addition to her work on the Judith: Captive to Conqueror manga for the publisher, Manga Hero, she also wrote the special edition Habemus Papam! Pope Benedict XVI manga for World Youth Day 2011 which was distributed to 300,000 readers in Madrid, Spain. Gabrielle graduated in entertainment media from John Paul the Great Catholic University. SEAN LAM (ARTIST) is a professional artist specializing in both American-style comic books as well as Japanese anime and manga. In addition to illustrating the Paul: Tarsus to Redemption, Judith: Captive to Conqueror, Many Are Called, and Habemus Papam! Pope Benedict XVI manga, Sean illustrates other graphic novels for the publisher, Manga Hero. His past works include the 480-page single volume manga, It Takes A Wizard, published by Seven Seas Entertainment and several instructional art books, where he was lead artist. A graduate in graphic design from Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts in Singapore, Sean worked in advertising as a creative and art director before pursuing his passion for illustrating.
