Editorial Review

Review

"White Rabbit Press's kanji flashcards are a step ahead. Above and beyond the standard content, you get six example words rather than the usual four, full definitions, and a look-alike box that alerts you to similar characters all too likely to show up in trick questions in exams. As with all the best educational materials, it's clear here that an enormous amount of work has gone into making the learning process as easy and convenient as possible for the student." --Giles Murray, author of Exploring Japanese Literature

About the Author

Max Hodges lives in Tokyo, Japan where he operates White Rabbit Press, a small publishing company; and, White Rabbit Express, a special order service for Japanese goods.

Born in Yamaguchi-ken, Tomoko Okazaki has over 13 years experience working as a surgical nurse in Japan's top hospitals. Tomoko studied English at Rice University in Houston, Texas. Tomoko was a two time winner of the televised NHK Youth Speech Contest.
