Mystery of the Mazzaroth: Prophecy in the Constellations By Tim Warner

The twelve signs of the Zodiac are as old as civilization itself. Yet their origin has puzzled historians. The Bible attributes the "Mazzaroth" (12 signs of the Zodiac) to God (Job. 38:32). King David wrote that a special Divine message has been heralded to all people of every language in the sky -- as the sun moves through the twelve "houses" (Psalm 19). Mystery of the Mazzaroth decodes the pictorial message of the Zodiac, showing that it contains the same language of prophetic symbols found in the Bible, revealing Israel's history in advance. The story begins with God's covenant with Abraham (Virgo) and ends with its ultimate fulfillment -- the Kingdom of the Messiah (Leo).

In 1862, Francis Rolleston published "Mazzaroth," attempting to link the Zodiac with Christianity based on similarities between phonetic sounds of Arabic star names and certain Hebrew words. Her theory has been copied and repackaged by Joseph Seiss, E. W. Bullinger, D. James Kennedy, and Chuck Missler. However, the whole basis for her theory has been thoroughly refuted by Christian apologetic ministries. Thus, all of these knockoffs of Rolleston's book have equally been soundly refuted.

Mystery of the Mazzaroth presents a completely new approach. Never before has the sequence of Zodiac signs been understood in light of Biblical prophecy, telling the sequential story of Israel's history and redemption. The connections between the Zodiac signs, the pagan myths associated with them, and the story of Israel are so numerous and profound, that they cannot be dismissed by any honest truth-seeker. This book will open your eyes to a powerful reason to believe that God exists, and that the Creator is the same God who appeared to Abraham.
